

Lonesome Whistle Sound

Bob Rasero

You're leaving on a train
It's rolling out of sight
Will I ever be the same
Without you loving me tonight

Standing in the rain
It's finally kicking in How will I ever stand the pain of never seeing you again

I'm so sorry babe
I didn't realize
What loneliness was
'Till I heard that whistle cry

Won't you tell the engineer
He's got to turn that train around
Don't you let him leave me here
Lost in that lonesome whistle sound

(repeat chorus and last verse)

Don't you let him leave me here
Lost in that lonesome whistle sound
